Fratelli Galloni S.p.A. is a specialized Italian company that has been producing high-quality Parma prosciutto since 1938.

Among the 200 ham producers belonging to the "Consortium of Parma Prosciutto", Fratelli Galloni S.p.A. has always distinguished itself by using the traditional processing methods as a means to safeguard the high quality of real Italian prosciutto: the salting is still carried out by hand, the smearing is repeated twice, or even three times if necessary, and the ageing takes place in cellars where ventilation is almost completely natural.

The raw materials come exclusively from selected farms, growing "mature" heavy pigs of national breeds, fed naturally and subject to the most rigorous health controls. This ensures the product they obtain is a large-sized prosciutto, suitable for a long ageing (at least 24 months instead of the 12 months minimum required for Parma prosciutto) and having the lowest possible salt content. Along with that they also feature the sweetness, fragrance and taste identifying the very best Parma prosciutto.

SANTA MAURO

Qualita Garantita Dal 1963

Imported from Italy, Santa Mauro pasta brings old world style to your dishes. Our pasta is made in the traditional method using bronze dies. Bronze die-cut pastas are coarser and more porous. This yields a better surface for sauces to cling to and a longer holding time.

Divina olives and antipasti represent authentic taste, traceability and superb quality. The Divina name is the gold standard in responsibly and traditionally prepared Mediterranean specialties.

From our growers across the Mediterranean, olive varieties such as the Greek Kalamata, Italian Castelvetrano and Mt. Athos Green are harvested and cured according to centuries-old methods. Divina's commitment to integrity and quality above all is present in the delicate taste of each olive.

Divina's antipasti selection reflects the vibrant colors and flavors of tables from around the Mediterranean and across the world. From our tender Dolmas, to our award-winning roasted red and yellow tomatoes, every Divina antipasto is made with the finest ingredients and utmost care.
